Greetings!

My qualifications to help you organize your property and your worldly possessions started 16 years ago when I lost my parents suddenly. Myself and eight of my brothers had the unpleasant task of trying to find everything there was about my parents.

Unfortunately, they were gone and we did not even know where to start. Let me tell you what a nightmare it was for ALL of us. Not even taking into consideration the cost of time and money figuring everything out.

I have been very successful in helping people get everything written down in one book that will save your loved ones months of watching the mail, plus the time to go over everything. With this service you can have your estate organized in a convenient folder.
