

State of Wisconsin
Department of Financial Institutions

Jim Doyle, Governor

Lorrie Keating Heinemann, Secretary

September 1, 2006

Dear Bank CEO and/or President:

On behalf of the Department of Financial Institutions (DFI), I am pleased to invite you to one of four banking roundtable listening sessions that we have scheduled for September in different parts of Wisconsin.

The purpose of these sessions will be for the Division of Banking Administrator Mike Mach and me to listen to your concerns, and also to review recent developments at the DFI. We also would be pleased to answer any questions you might have regarding the Department and our working relationship with you. Following are a few items for discussion:

- 1) Update on the condition of Wisconsin banks
- 2) General examination topics
- 3) Current banking issues
- 4) DFI's role in Governor Doyle's Grow Wisconsin plan and other economic growth initiatives

I hope you will be able to join us at one of the following locations. All banking sessions are scheduled to take place from 10:00 A.M. to Noon.

Monday, September 18 – Appleton

D.J. Bordini Center, 5 Systems Drive

(Located directly across street from Fox Valley Technical College, 1825 N. Bluemound Drive.)

Parking information: Park in the lot at the Center.

Tuesday, September 19 – Madison

Department of Financial Institutions, 345 W. Washington Avenue, 5th Floor

Parking information: DFI visitor parking is available from the West Main Street entrance underneath the DFI building on level B (lower level, stalls 148-161). If the DFI reserved visitor stalls are unavailable, then you may park in any unnumbered stall on level B. Be sure to note your parking level and stall number so that you can have it validated by the 5th floor receptionist.

Thursday, September 21 – Eau Claire

Chippewa Valley Technical College, Health Education Center, Room 208, 615 W Clairemont Avenue.

Parking information: Park in parking lot P4 which is located on the south side of the Health Education building.
