DFI's Executive Assistant leaving agency

MADISON – Eric Knight, Executive Assistant for the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) since January 2011, announced today he will be leaving the agency effective Oct. 26 to explore other opportunities.

“I would like to thank Governor Walker and DFI Secretary Peter Bildsten for the opportunity to serve the State of Wisconsin in protecting the safety and soundness of its financial institutions,” Knight said. “It has been an honor to work closely with all of DFI’s stakeholder organizations.”

The DFI Executive Assistant works with the Wisconsin Legislature, Congress, business leaders and stakeholder groups to advance policies that fulfill the department’s mission of ensuring the safety and soundness of Wisconsin’s financial institutions.

“Eric has been a real asset to DFI and we wish him well in his future endeavors,” Secretary Bildsten said.

Knight has worked under two administrations and served as a staff member in the state Senate and as a chief of staff for a member of the Assembly.
