Kim Santos appointed to top spot in Office of Credit Unions

MADISON – The Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) announced today that Kim Santos has been appointed to head the Office of Credit Unions, which regulates state-chartered credit unions.

Santos, a 20-year employee of the Office of Credit Unions, most recently served as Deputy Director. She succeeds Ginger Larson, who announced last week she is retiring in June after 17 years with the Office, including nine years as Director.

“Kim will make an outstanding Director of the Office of Credit Unions,” said DFI Secretary Peter Bildsten. “Her two decades of experience in a variety of roles will serve the Office well.”

Bildsten added: “We appreciate everything Ginger has accomplished in her time with the Office of Credit Unions and wish her nothing but the best in retirement.”
